LOCAL ROUNDUPS

Such sometimes make a name,
But others sink so black and dismal,
Why give a man peculiar fame,
Would not this peculiar fame?

John McMenamy has been on the sick list for the past week.

R. H. Clark and Peter Nelson are in from the Bonito mining in the town.

Mrs. Bolton, wife of J. R. Bolton, is suffering with cancer in the stomach.

L. W. Stewart is suffering with a pain in his neck. He looks very dignified.

Gen. T. W. Helman, superintendent of the South Homestake mine, is on the sick list.

The White Oaks House is for rent. Inquire of, or address, J. B. Collier.

S. A. Johnson has enclosed his residence with a picket fence, which adds materially to its appearance.

Tom Wallace, the Nogal bonanza king, paid us a visit last Tuesday. Tom is a jolly wholesouled boy. Come again Tom.

Capt. J. C. Lee, the Roswell stockman, is in Kansas City laid up with rheumatism. The St. Louis convention did it.

Whiteman says the stamps for the Chandler mill are on the road. Whiteman is on the inside track and knows what he is talking about.

Our public school under the efficient management of Mrs. A. L. McInnis is a decided success. White Oaks has long stood in need of a good school.

Capt. Brazil of Eagle is in town. If you want to know all about the New Orleans Exposition, call on the Capt. He can talk you blind in about two minutes.

W. C. McDonald, our county assessor, begins his work next week. He will first take in Pecos, Black River and other points in that portion of the county.

W. C. McDonald, our worthy assessor, is arranging a plat of the lots in the town of White Oaks, which will enable him to assess the property to its rightful owners.

Dr. Zimmerman will take in the New Orleans Exposition next month. The Dr. has some patent medicines of his own manufacture which he will advertise extensively during his absence.

W. J. Laramie, who has been confined to his bed for the past two weeks with inflammatory rheumatism is recovering slowly. His many friends will be glad to see him on his feet again.

R. G. Young has enclosed his residence with a neat and substantial picket fence. Dick says he and the dogs never could get along together, and that hereafter he intends to live by himself.

The ore body in the South Homestake mine is said to be growing richer every foot gained in depth. There is now no longer any question about the future of White Oaks as a bullion producing camp.

Mr. Wm. Cafrey, one of the character journalists of New Mexico, who fearlessly dips his pen in gall or myrrh, as the inspiration seizes him, will visit his numerous friends in Socorro during the week.

Mr. Sam Moore, who has been interested in cattle in Lincoln county, being a member of the firm of Cody & Miller, near White Oaks, will move his family to Springer and become a permanent citizen. He expects to start in the cattle business again.

THE WHOLESALE MURDER NEAR PADERNAL.

DEATH OF THE MURDERER.

By Wednesday morning Crescencio Lucero, the grandson, had organized a party of twenty men, who went to Gallegos' house, surrounded it and captured the man without any opposition on his part. He was led outside of the house and as Lorenzo Montano says, "shower of bullets as if from heaven riddled his worthless body." As the party approached the house they saw the murderer's wife and ten-year-old daughter lying posture nude near the building. The daughter had a bullet hole in her breast and the wife lay upon her back displaying a ghastly hole in her head from which the brains oozed. Both of her legs had been cut entirely from the body as if the fiend had done all he could to make her sufferings as terrible as possible. The party went into the house and found the murderer's son, about three years old, lying upon bed with both hands and feet tied and almost starved. He must have laid there for several days. He was released and sent to El Pino, about twelve miles distant, to a family where he would be cared for. The bodies were all buried, except Miguel Montano's, which was brought to this city for interment. A Mexican reports that a man and woman was found dead a day or so since near a small mountain called El Peraldo near Gallegos' ranch, and it is supposed that he was their murderer also.

Summing the terrible crime up we find that Gallegos sacrificed three human lives, besides killing all of the brute creatures that came on his ranch, and at last gave up his own worthless existence. Such is the history of one of the most hideous crimes ever perpetrated in this or any other country.—Aburque Journal.

Dr. Shapley of Nogal, has been taking in the city for the past week. The Dr. is a perfect gentleman and a thorough dentist. Persons needing work in his line, will find him fully competent, and reasonable in his charges.

On Saturday last while Will Hudgens was roping a wild horse, the horse he was riding was thrown off his feet and fell upon a rough bony bruising one of Mr. Hudgen's legs and dislocated a wrist. He is suffering a good deal from his injuries but as no bones were fractured he will be himself again in a short time.

The surprise party held at L. A. Stewart's last Saturday night was a grand success. Everybody enjoyed themselves hugely. Card playing and dancing were the chief amusements of the evening, although local felt considerably annoyed when the good lady of the house placed a plate well filled with nickels on his lap, and told him to dispense his hunger.

J. W. Kelley now has the contract for carrying the mail from White Oaks to Pinos Station, (Alkali Wells) and once a week will go thither with a buckboard, carrying passengers and packages. Carriage on packages weighing 5 lbs and under, 25 cents, over that weight, 3 cents a pound extra. Passengers to Red Cloud $4.00, and to Alkali Wells $6.00.

Mr. Hewitt has kindly permitted us to print the following letter from Rev. C. Monjeon which explains itself and is meant for the people of White Oaks and vicinity:

Middleton, O., Feb. 20, 1885.

Dear Mr. Hewitt, Esq. Dear Sir: I desire to thank you sincerely for your kind and considerate letter regarding my brother, Louis N. It tends to alleviate the loss in his death to learn that the good people of White Oaks were so kind and attentive in their expressions of regard and regret. Please express my gratitude to them. Very respectfully yours,

C. Monjeon.
